THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI
—Panola County.

The State of Mississippi,
To the unknown heirs of Charles T.
Harris, Jr., deceased—

You, and each of you, are hereby cited to be and appear before the Probate Court of said county, at the Courthouse in the town of Panola, on the first Monday in December next, to answer the petition of James O. Harris and David N. Harris, executors of the last will and testament of Charles T. Harris, Sr., deceased, for the sale of the following personal estate, to wit:

Horses, Mules, Cattle, Hogs, Sheep, Oxen, Corn, Fodder, Farming Utensils, and a large assortment of other articles, such as are usually found on a plantation, together with a growing crop of cotton, belonging to the estate of said Charles T. Harris, Sr., for division and distribution among the legatees and heirs at law of the said Charles T. Harris, Sr., deceased, and to show cause, if any you can, why said personal estate should not be sold for such division and distribution, and further to do and suffer such things as shall be considered and ordered by the Court aforesaid; in the premises.

Issued October 9th, 1856.

W. P. WOOTEN,
n38-5t Clerk said Court.

Sheriff's Sale.

By virtue of an execution issued from the Clerk's Office of the Circuit Court for Panola County, and State of Mississippi, on the 2d day of June, 1856, on a judgment in said court, rendered on the 19th day of May, 1856, I will sell, on Monday, the 10th day of November, 1856, at the Courthouse door in the town of Panola, at public auction, to the highest bidder for cash, the following tract of land, situated in said court, to wit: about two acres of land, more or less, on the Tallahatchie river, in or adjoining the town of Belmont, described as MII Lot, and mill lot, and being a portion of the dower interest of the widow of Elliott Jones, deceased, and more particularly described in the report of the commissioners appointed by the Probate Court of said county for that purpose, and to which decree and report reference is here made.
Taken in execution as the property of J. W. Baker, to satisfy said judgment in favor of C. H. and J. D. Farley, executors of the last will and testament of Robert M. Farley, deceased, and against J. W. & E. L. Baker.

BOOKS! BOOKS!

e. c. LEAVES] [n. l. COOK]

Cleaves & Guion,

BIBLIOPOLISTS, 241 Main-st., Memphis, Tenn.

Will for the future, present rare attractions to the Bibliographer and Bibliophile.

Mr. Cleaves' experience, (from assiduous and unremitting attention to the business for fifteen years past) and Mr. Guion's acknowledged energy and activity, are the surest guarantees to the community for the fulfillment of their promise to make their establishment the pioneer of the literary world. Having now ample room and verge enough to give scope to their cherished intention of extending to the Southwest a Bookstore in the broadest sense of the phrase, they now ask respectfully that all will call and determine for themselves whether the performance is in keeping with the high-sounding manifesto.

For the Religious World!
Protestant and Catholic, Methodist, Presbyterian, Episcopal and Baptist, of whatever sect, we propose keeping the standards of their respective faith, and the “vade mecum” of their daily life.

The World in General!
Such as desire an acquaintance with the extensive range of literature at the present day, will find upon our shelves all that the Press, that mighty engine of knowledge, sends forth of ancient or modern classics, of history, poetry, philosophy or belles lettres.

Professional Men
Will be furnished with all the authors, legal or medical, ancient and modern, European and American, which may be desired. Particular attention will be given to this hitherto neglected branch of the trade. In a word, our purpose is to keep always on hand Religious, Political, Scientific, Mechanical, Legal, Medical, School and Miscellaneous Books.

Stationery—Foreign and American Blank Books, of all kinds and sizes; Copying Prosses; Bank Checks and Notes; Pencils, Pens, Ink, Paper—letter, note and cap; Envelopes, of all sizes; Wafers, Sand, etc., to furnish to the trade in the city and out, and to individuals, at wholesale or retail, as reasonably as may be desired; to supersede, in brief, the necessity of going elsewhere to supply their wants.

All our departments are complete. We solicit a continuance of the liberal patronage we have heretofore received, that we may have inducement to keep them so.

Call and Examine.
